

The Buzz

31st May, 2021

Welcome, Jesse!

Volume 1, Issue 5

Jesse Poole, our new Rector, was commissioned on May 14th at an uplifting service. In attendance were Bishop Murray, the registry staff, Jesse's friends and family and visitors from neighbouring towns, and even Grafton and Sydney. It was wonderful to see leaders from surrounding churches and denominations come together to welcome Jesse and pray for God's leading and blessings on his ministry here. For the All Saints congregation, this is an exciting time as we look forward to having a priest in charge!

Right: A little more relaxed after the service at the sumptuous supper put together by the catering group

Off to a flying start!

Jesse may have been here only a few weeks, but he is quickly getting to know us, and vice versa!

Right: A friendly word and a warm handshake after Sunday morning service.

Jesse sits down with the congregation and has listening sessions over a cuppa after most Sunday services, as he tries to get to know how this church community thinks and works.

Right: Jesse leads a commentated mass, explaining the nitty gritty of the liturgy and symbols used in the church

Below: At the Wednesday 10am service. Looking forward to more services and prayers through the week

